

Research and analysis: Vaping in England: evidence update February 2021

Annual update of Public Health England's e-cigarette evidence review by leading independent tobacco experts. This report covers vaping for smoking cessation.