

Research: Methodology Note: A data led assessment of areas in England that count or have potential to count towards the 30by30 target

This paper outlines data-driven spatial analysis used to assess areas of land across England that meet the 30by30 criteria or have potential to meet the criteria in the future.