

Resident doctors agree deal with Government to end strikes

The BMA vote to accept offer which will see resident doctors benefit from new pay structure and better career progression opportunities