

Resident doctors to vote on government offer to end strikes

Resident doctors will vote on an offer that will see see greater opportunities for career progression, better pay and improved working conditions.