

Review of broadcast rules around major sporting events

Government review will consider if public service broadcasters should be guaranteed the opportunity to buy digital rights for major sporting events