

River Leadon recovery helped by 90,000 new fish

As part of a post pollution restocking program the Environment Agency has introduced 90,000 fish to the river