

RSH finalises requirements for electrical safety checks TSM

All large social housing landlords in England will be required publish the electrical safety checks TSM for the first time covering the 2026/27 reporting year.