

RSV vaccine highly effective in preventing hospitalisation

RSV vaccines are 82% effective for older people and 72% for newborns when mothers are vaccinated at least 14 days before birth.