

Safe removal of masts from historic WWII shipwreck carrying wartime explosives begins

The operation involves constructing an underwater platform to allow specialist maritime engineers to safely cut the 3 masts of the shipwreck.