

Sam Gyimah outlines how the use of AI will allow us to save...

Sam Gyimah outlines how the use of AI will allow us to save thousands of lives each year, as the Prime Minister has set out plans to transform the diagnosis of chronic diseases. These plans form part of our modern Industrial Strategy, which is a plan to improve productivity and create better and higher-paying jobs across the country