

School minibus operator suspended and fleet cut after serious compliance failings

A North East independent school has had its public service vehicle operator's licence suspended and curtailed following a public inquiry which identified significant maintenance and compliance shortcomings.