

School run superheroes to boost cycle lanes and walkways to schools

New junior active travel inspectors will work with teachers and parents to assess local walking and cycling routes around their schools.