

Manila, call for bids for FY 2022/23: media freedom

The British Embassy in Manila is seeking proposals that support protection and promotion of medial freedom in Philippines.

Regulator opens inquiry into air ambulance charity after trustees cannot provide evidence for all of its expenditure

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into the Air Ambulance Foundation UK (1155345), after its trustees failed to provide evidence that all funds have been expended in furtherance of its purposes.

Correspondence between Lord Evans and Camden Council's Standards Committee

Lord Evans has replied to a letter from the London Borough of Camden's Standards Committee about the government's response to CSPL's 2019 report on local government

Anne Kavanagh and Clare Shine appointed to The Crown Estate Board

On the recommendation of the Prime Minister, Anne Kavanagh and Clare Shine are appointed as new members of The Crown Estate Board.

New building to drive innovation at thriving Culham

Innovative companies will move to Culham Science Centre following UKAEA's signed agreement to build a research and development building.