

Transparency data: Council for Science and Technology: meeting summary, June 2022

Summary of the Council for Science and Technology (CST) meeting in June 2022.

Foreign Office statement on the attack in Duhok

A statement from the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office following the attack in the Zakho district of Duhok, Iraq on 20 July 2022.

Government publishes proposals for package of transitional measures to support research and innovation sector affected by Horizon Europe delays

Government sets out a new package of transitional measures to ensure the stability and continuity of funding for researchers and businesses.

Government sets out plan to reduce water pollution

Plans will benefit protected wildlife sites and create new habitats for nature

£1 million in contracts awarded to enhance the UK's space capabilities

Secured through the Space to Innovate Campaign – Bravo Drop, five innovative organisations have won funding to develop technologies that enhance the UK's ability to safely operate in space