

News story: Ethics group to oversee use of large data sets by the Home Office

The remit of the Biometrics and Forensics Ethics Group has been expanded to provide independent review of the use of large data sets by the department.

Building a more liveable and sustainable world of transport

Speaking at the Smart Transport conference Jesse Norman MP discusses the future connected challenges of transport plus environmentally focused schemes.

Press release: Gloucestershire school children learning to love nature with help from the Environment Agency

400 students are learning about what lives in the river and how they can help keep our rivers clean

News story: UK wins global F-35 support assignment worth £500M

The UK's role as a leading partner on the global F-35 programme has received another huge boost today.

News story: Minister for Crime plans to protect shop workers from violence

Victoria Atkins chaired a meeting of the National Retail Crime Steering Group to discuss how to protect retail workers from abusive and violent incidents.