

Regulator launches inquiry into Islamic Centre of England

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into the Islamic Centre of England Limited over serious governance concerns.

---

Government launches £1.5 million AI programme for reducing carbon emissions

Government launches new innovation programme to support the use of artificial intelligence (AI) in reducing the UK's carbon emissions.

---

Hundreds of formerly outstanding schools reinspected

Today Ofsted has published a commentary on inspection outcomes for previously exempt outstanding schools reinspected in 2021/22.

---

Seven new Social Mobility Commissioners appointed

Today the Minister for Women and Equalities, Liz Truss, has appointed 7 new Commissioners to the Board of the Social Mobility Commission.

---

New fellowship for civil servants launched

MiSoC fellowship for civil servants brings together academics and policy-makers to help answer specific policy questions