

New benefit counter-fraud plan set to save taxpayer £2 billion

A £600 million plan to fight fraud in the welfare system will introduce a range of new powers and boost the counter-fraud frontline, saving the taxpayer £2 billion over three years.

NATO Award for Dstl Fellow

Dstl Fellow Bharatkumar (“Bharat”) Patel has received a NATO award for his significant scientific contribution to modelling and simulation and its impact on military capability.

New powers to protect access to cash

Millions of people across the UK will benefit from new legislation to protect access to cash, helping to level up opportunity and ensure financial inclusion across the UK, the government announced today (Thursday 19 May).

Civil news: CCMS update for international child access cases

New online civil funding application features for international disputes about rights of access to a child falling under Article 21 of 1980 Hague Convention.

Home Secretary meeting with Rwandan Minister Dr Vincent Biruta

Priti Patel and Rwandan Minister Dr Vincent Biruta met in London to update each other on progress on the new partnership agreed between the UK and Rwanda.