

Derelict land to be transformed into new homes in boost for local regeneration

Thousands of new homes will be built on derelict land to create thriving communities and help level up the country.

Almost 1,000 prison leavers tagged in first year of drive to cut booze-fuelled crime

Nearly 1,000 prison leavers have been tagged in the first year of a scheme designed to crackdown on booze-fuelled crime.

Foreign Secretary speech at the Manama Dialogue in Bahrain

The Foreign Secretary has given a speech at the Manama Dialogue in Bahrain, in which he called out Russia and Iran as threats to the security of the Middle East

Security situation in the Democratic Republic of the Congo: joint statement from Belgium, France, the UK and USA

The UK Special Envoy for the African Great Lakes, Alison Thorpe, joined the United States and the Special Envoys of Belgium and France to issue a statement.

SLC launches recruitment campaign to recruit more than 100 employees

SLC is recruiting for over a 100 new permanent Student Finance Officers in Darlington.