

Hundreds of formerly outstanding schools reinspected

Today Ofsted has published a commentary on inspection outcomes for previously exempt outstanding schools reinspected in 2021/22.

Seven new Social Mobility Commissioners appointed

Today the Minister for Women and Equalities, Liz Truss, has appointed 7 new Commissioners to the Board of the Social Mobility Commission.

New fellowship for civil servants launched

MiSoC fellowship for civil servants brings together academics and policy-makers to help answer specific policy questions

PM announces new air defence for Ukraine on first visit to Kyiv

Prime Minister confirms UK will bolster Ukraine's air defence against barbaric aerial assault.

Derelict land to be transformed into new homes in boost for local regeneration

Thousands of new homes will be built on derelict land to create thriving communities and help level up the country.