

Teesside security bosses ordered to pay £6,000 for breaching the Private Security Industry Act

On 10 May 2022 two Teesside company directors were together ordered to pay £6,000 following a Proceeds of Crime order handed to them at Teesside Crown Court.

Minister visits Gladstone Pottery Museum in Stoke-On-Trent

Minister Nigel Adams explored family links to pottery in Stoke-on-Trent and promoted the Cultural Development Fund

Learning at Work Week is here

This week is Learning at Work Week. From live events to exploring training available to you, are you investing in your skills to help build a Modern Civil Service?

Report by the Co-ordinator of OSCE Economic and Environmental Activities: UK response, May 2022

Ambassador Neil Bush welcomes the OSCE/OCEEA's focus on the economic and environmental consequences of Russia's war against Ukraine.

Call for proposals under Small

Projects Fund 2022 to 2023 in Ukraine

The British Embassy Kyiv invites project proposals to support local governance and civil society in Ukraine.