

New protections for rape victims available at more Crown Courts

More victims of rape and sexual offences will be spared the stress of being cross-examined in court under a measure rolled out to a further 14 locations today (12 May 2022).

New Charter to improve media access to courts

A new Reporters' Charter outlining the rights and responsibilities of court reporters has been launched to boost transparency in the justice system.

Minister visits government funded veterans support hub in Wales

Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster Steve Barclay today visited Woody's Lodge in Barry, to meet with veterans and charity staff.

Trade deal with Australia helps Northern Ireland manufacturer secure landmark deal

Wrightbus has secured a major deal to sell ground-breaking zero-emission buses in Australia.

Report: Marine geospatial collaboration will reaffirm the UK's role as a global leader in ocean science

A collaborative study from partners across government, industry and academia reveals that groups responsible for gathering marine geospatial information must find new, more efficient ways of working together.