

UK and Egypt bring more than 40 countries together to drive implementation of climate commitments

The UK and Egypt will bring countries together in Copenhagen this week to focus on what climate action needs to be taken to deliver key commitments ahead of COP27 in Sharm El-Sheikh in November.

The IAGCI invites tenders to evaluate Home Office Country Information Products on Rwanda

Potential reviewers are invited to submit expressions of interest by the close of Monday, 30 May 2022.

How the government is supporting workers

What the government has done to protect and enhance workers' rights.

Minister for Asia visits South Korea to deliver closer bilateral ties

Minister for Asia, Amanda Milling visited South Korea to attend the inauguration of President Yoon Suk-Yeol.

Alternative waste route found for

Dounreay's bulk metal items

Two large redundant items that were removed from Dounreay's facilities have now left the site for disposal or diversion, opening up new waste routes.