

New Open RAN Principles published to build stronger telecoms supply chain

The government has announced new industry guidelines to roll out Open RAN across the UK quickly and attract new telecoms suppliers to the 5G supply chain.

CMA finds competition concerns in merger of emergency service software suppliers

NEC Software Solutions' purchase of SSS raises competition concerns in the supply of vital software to emergency services and transport customers.

Four Malawians off to the UK for Chevening Media Freedom Fellowship

Mid to senior level professionals in their fields who will to explore issues of public trust and media freedom at the University of Westminster.

UK invites Guatemala to join a new global security approach

British Ambassador Nick Whittingham invited Guatemala to embrace a reboot in the free world's approach to tackling global aggressors in the wake of the Ukraine crisis.

New law in place to strengthen UK

professions

A new approach to recognising professional qualifications gained overseas has now received Royal Assent.