

The UK promotes alliances for biodiversity in Guatemala

The British Ambassador, Nick Whittingham, celebrated the achievements of COP26 in Guatemala at a reception with the government, civil society and executives.

The SIXEP Continuity Plant success shows future for our project delivery

Our construction projects on the Sellafield site are seeing milestones smashed and targets beaten as they take full advantage of a new way of delivering the infrastructure needed to deliver our purpose.

Record levels of investment for UK's £10.1 billion cyber security sector

Revenue generated by cyber security firms rose by 14 per cent to £10.1 billion

DBS is working with The National Trust to support safe recruitment

This partnership will allow DBS to support the safe recruitment of staff and volunteers.

Health and Social Care Secretary Sajid Javid opens new A&E

Health and Social Care Secretary visits North West and West Midlands health and care services to thank staff