

Yorkshire Water pays for environmental damage

Yorkshire Water pays Yorkshire Wildlife Trust £300,000 in an Enforcement Undertaking which has been accepted by the Environment Agency.

Joint Expeditionary Force Military Chiefs Agree to 'Work Together on Shared Challenges' Amid Rising Tensions with Russia

The UK's Chief of the Defence Staff Admiral Sir Tony Radakin met with his counterparts from the other Joint Expeditionary Force (JEF) to discuss the situation in and around Ukraine and European security issues.

UK and Japan to work together on world-leading fighter jet sensor

The UK and Japan have today signed a Letter of Arrangement (LOA) to jointly conduct cooperative research on a world-leading fighter jet sensor

PM call with President Biden: 14 February 2022

Prime Minister Boris Johnson spoke to the President of the United States of America, Joe Biden, this evening.

Plans approved for a new 'aquagreen'

that will reduce flood damage in east Hull

An Environment Agency project to create a large 'aquagreen' that will reduce flood risk to over 870 properties and key infrastructure in east Hull has been given the go ahead.