

Dstl trials battlefield sensor protection

The Defence Science and Technology Laboratory is researching new materials to improve protection for optical sensors within digital cameras against attacks by lasers.

PM statement at Ukraine press conference: 1 February 2022

Prime Minister Boris Johnson made a statement at a joint press conference with President Zelenskyy in Kyiv, Ukraine.

MoJ creating more than 2,000 jobs across England and Wales to spread opportunity

Seven new regional Ministry of Justice (MoJ) offices will be opened across England and Wales, the Deputy Prime Minister has announced today as the Government continues to level up communities.

UK cutting-edge space defence backed by £1.4 billion

The UK will invest £1.4 billion to bolster our national interests in space, as part of the first Defence Space Strategy published today.

Government outlines ambitious plans to level up activities for young people

Government commits to National Youth Guarantee backed by £560 million funding