

3D printing at record scale and AI for steelmaking among tech awarded share of £14 million government funding

£14 million awarded to projects that harness digital technology to drive energy efficiency, productivity and growth across key manufacturing industries.

---

Call for Bids: Australia Network's UK Trade Partnerships Fund Supply Chains Project

The UK in Australia network is issuing a call for bids for planning and executing a project to increase supply chain resilience collaboration between the UK and Australia, and potentially third countries, as well as business...

---

Recognising the clear link between illicit trading of natural resources and conflict

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the UN Security Council debate on strengthening the fight against the financing of armed groups and terrorists through the illicit trafficking of natural resources.

---

UN Human Rights Council 51: UK statement on slavery resolution

Ambassador Simon Manley, Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva, introduced the resolution on the renewal of the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of slavery, its causes and consequences.

---

UKHSA monitoring Ebola outbreak in East Africa

The UK Health Security Agency (UKHSA) is currently monitoring an outbreak of Ebola virus disease cases in Uganda.