

Sara Khan appointed as independent advisor for social cohesion and resilience

Sara will work to understand and build resilience against the negative impact of extremism and better support its victims and those working to counter it.

Called-in decision: 40 and 40A High Street, Brentford, London (ref: 3226900 – 31 March 2021)

Decision letter and Inspector's Report for a called-in decision.

UK's G7 Trade Track Opening Statement

International Trade Secretary, Liz Truss', opening statement at the inaugural G7 Trade Track

Charity regulator opens statutory inquiry into The Aspinall Foundation

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into The Aspinall Foundation over serious concerns about the charity's governance and financial management.

Charity regulator launches statutory inquiry into The Howletts Wild Animal

Trust

The Charity Commission has opened a statutory inquiry into The Howletts Wild Animal Trust over serious concerns about the charity's governance and financial management.