

Sobriety tags launched in England to tackle alcohol-fuelled crime

Sobriety tags and drinking bans aimed at reducing alcohol-fuelled crimes launch in England today (Wednesday 31 March), following a successful rollout in Wales.

New freedoms to support high streets and fast track delivery of schools and hospitals across England introduced today

Housing Secretary Robert Jenrick announces package of measures to revitalise England's cherished high streets and town centres.

Global summit to help those most vulnerable fight climate change

Countries that are most vulnerable to the impacts of climate change will help set the international agenda.

MHCLG appoints two new non-executive directors

Two new non-executive directors appointed to the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Communities Departmental Board.

Fusion research partnership agreed between UKAEA and The University of Manchester

The agreement will see new research groups in the key areas of tritium and digital engineering.