

With 8 years left until 2030, we must leave no one behind: UK statement at UN Second Committee

Ambassador James Kariuki delivered the UK's national statement at the General Debate of the UN's Second Committee which opened in New York this week.

Diplomacy is the only route to sustained peace on the Korean peninsula: UK statement at the UN Security Council

Statement by Ambassador Barbara Woodward at the UN Security Council briefing on North Korea

IAGCI re-opens a call for tenders to evaluate the coverage of statelessness in Home Office country information products

The Independent Advisory Group on Country Information seeks an expert to complete a thematic review of the treatment of statelessness in the country of origin information used to assess asylum and protection claims.

IAGCI invites tenders to evaluate Home Office country information products

Potential reviewers of country of origin information on Myanmar, Albania, the Democratic Republic of Congo, and Iraq are invited to submit expressions of interest by the close of Friday, 21 October.

UKHO provides bathymetric surveys for the Seabed 2030 project

Marking the first time the UKHO supplies data directly to GEBCO, this initiative aims to advance the understanding of ocean bathymetry and support the Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development