

British Ambassador travels to Quetzaltenango

The British Ambassador to Guatemala, Nick Whittingham, will visit Quetzaltenango on January 21-22 to promote collaboration on priority UK policy goals.

Flood warnings increase as Storm Christoph brings more rain

The Environment Agency is urging people to sign up to flood warnings and to check the latest safety advice as more heavy rain is forecast in parts of England.

£12M UK-Japan robotics deal for fusion energy and nuclear decommissioning research

UK-Japan relationship in nuclear science boosted by robotics and automation

Up-rating report 2021 – focus on the National Insurance Fund

The Government Actuary has published the Up-rating Report 2021 on the National Insurance Fund. It will be considered by MPs as they scrutinise draft government legislation.

100th Nationally Significant

Infrastructure Project decision reached

Today, 19 January 2021, sees the 100th Nationally Significant Infrastructure Project decided after examination by the Planning Inspectorate since the introduction of the Planning Act 2008.