

Infected Blood victims to receive £100,000 interim compensation payment

Thousands of victims of the infected blood scandal will each receive an interim compensation payment of £100,000

Scottish Secretary responds to August Labour Market Statistics

As new figures from the ONS show Scottish unemployment at a record low, Scottish Secretary Alister Jack says the UK Government is continuing to help create and support jobs through investment in communities.

DataConnect22 starts soon!

Sign up now for the annual conference that celebrates all things data. Organised by Government Data Quality Hub and the Central Digital and Data Office

The Rt Hon Amanda Milling MP gives speech at British High Commission in New Zealand

Minister for Asia and the Middle East Amanda Milling gave a speech at the British High Commission in Wellington to diplomats, policy makers and academics on the UK and New Zealand relationship.

New trading scheme cuts tariffs on hundreds of everyday products

The Developing Countries Trading Scheme (DCTS) will help UK businesses access hundreds of products from around the globe at lower prices, reducing costs for UK consumers.