

Second shipment of vitrified waste from UK to Germany completed

The second of three planned shipments of high level waste in the form of vitrified residues has been safely delivered to Germany.