

Second World War veterans to receive government support for overseas remembrance events

Government to support Second World War veterans to travel to overseas commemorative events