

Second World War veterans to travel to overseas commemorations paid for by the Government

The Ministry of Defence will pay for Second World War veterans to attend commemorations in Europe this summer in partnership with the Royal British Legion