

Secretary of State's address to the House on resident doctors

The Secretary of State for Health and Social Care, Wes Streeting has made a statement to the House on industrial action by resident doctors.