

Security Minister statement on national security and threat level

The Security Minister gave an update to Parliament on a number of recent national security issues, including the increase in the national threat level.