

SED mourns passing of Dr Lee Shau-kee

The Secretary for Education, Dr Choi Yuk-lin, today (March 17) expressed sorrow over the passing of Dr Lee Shau-kee and deep condolences to his family.

Dr Choi said, "Over the past decades, Dr Lee had exhibited extensive generosity in setting up the Hong Kong Pei Hua Education Foundation and the Lee Shau Kee Foundation, donating to various tertiary institutions, and secondary and primary schools in Hong Kong and Mainland China for campus expansion, facility improvements, and the establishment of various scholarships that have benefited numerous students. The education sector is deeply inspired by Dr Lee's commitment to the country, his passion for education and dedication to nurturing outstanding talent."

Dr Choi firmly believed that the philanthropist, who had made enormous contributions to the community, will be remembered fondly by Hong Kong people.
