

SED to attend International Summit on the Teaching Profession and Asia-Pacific Association for International Education Conference and Exhibition

The Secretary for Education, Dr Choi Yuk-lin, will begin her visit to Iceland and India on March 24 (Reykjavík time) to promote the advantages of Hong Kong as an international post-secondary education hub.

On March 25 (Reykjavík time), Dr Choi will lead a delegation of Hong Kong principals and education experts to attend the International Summit on the Teaching Profession 2025 in Reykjavík, Iceland, to discuss the latest trends in global education development with education ministers from around the world. She will also visit local schools and meet education experts there.

On March 27 (Delhi time), she will depart for Delhi, India, and lead a delegation of representatives of the University Grants Committee (UGC) and UGC-funded universities to attend the Asia-Pacific Association for International Education 2025 Conference and Exhibition, during which she will deliver a speech on "Study in Hong Kong". The Secretary-General of the UGC, Professor James Tang, will join part of the visit.

Dr Choi will conclude her visit on March 28 (Delhi time) and return to Hong Kong. During her absence, the Under Secretary for Education, Dr Sze Chun-fai, will be the Acting Secretary for Education.
