

SFO opens European data centre bribery investigation

The SFO today searched five properties and made three arrests as it announced a new multi-million pound international bribery investigation.