

SIA consults on proposals to further toughen criminality criteria for licence applications

The Security Industry Authority (SIA) has today (11 March 2025) launched a consultation on changes it is proposing to make to its licensing criteria.