

Sir Andy Marsh announced as preferred candidate for HM Chief Inspector

College of Policing chief executive has 30 years' policing experience and led significant reforms in professional standards, leadership and technology.