

Skills and Training Scheme expanded to help 100,000 people into work

Over 100,000 people looking for work to benefit from tailored training next year, providing employers with work-ready recruits.