

SLW to visit Switzerland and Germany

The Secretary for Labour and Welfare, Mr Chris Sun, will depart for Geneva, Switzerland, this evening (June 3) to attend the 113th Session of the International Labour Conference as part of the delegation of the People's Republic of China (PRC). He will be joined by the Commissioner for Labour, Ms May Chan, as well as employee and employer members of the Labour Advisory Board.

While in Geneva, Mr Sun will also hold bilateral meetings with senior officials of the International Labour Organization and leading figures of international organisations attending the conference. He will also meet with government, employer and employee representatives of the PRC delegation, as well as representatives from the Permanent Mission of the PRC to the United Nations Office at Geneva and other International Organizations in Switzerland.

On June 7, Mr Sun will leave for Munich, Germany, for the second leg of his visit. He will meet with young entrepreneurs and talent to exchange ideas and introduce the latest developments in manpower policies in Hong Kong. The Director of Hong Kong Talent Engage, Mr Anthony Lau, will also join him.

Mr Sun will arrive in Hong Kong on the evening of June 9. In his absence, the Under Secretary for Labour and Welfare, Mr Ho Kai-ming, will be the Acting Secretary for Labour and Welfare.
