

Sound Seating: Colin St John Wilson's Library Furniture

In 1995, the British Library began documenting oral histories of British architects through the National Life Stories series Architects' Lives. The following year the project looked close to home and published an interview with the architect of the library's St. Pancras location. In twenty-seven parts available on the BL's Sounds...