

Spring calving warning

After a summer of exceptional grass growth, beef cows across the country are generally in very good condition.