

Sri Lanka looks to join Global Charter on Children's Care Reform to boost family-based care

Vulnerable children to be protected in Sri Lanka, as the country signs a letter of intent to join the UK's Global Charter for Children's Care Reform, during a visit to Colombo by Deputy Prime Minister David Lammy today (Tues...