

Stalking victims urged to report offences swiftly, says Attorney General

Stalking victims have been urged to report offending swiftly and with confidence to prevent the risk of further harm during National Stalking Awareness Week.