

Storm Christoph presents significant flood risk

The Environment Agency is urging people to sign up to flood warnings and to check the latest safety advice as heavy rain is forecast in parts of England