

Supermarket staff receive industry leading pay rise as Minister celebrates businesses going above and beyond to support their workers

Employment Rights Minister visits an Aldi supermarket in Watford following the retailer's decision to make its staff the best paid in the UK.